

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

PREFACE TO THE FIRST EDITION.

THE Author having been for several years engaged as Bill Clerk, has, at the suggestion of the Publishers, compiled this work after much consideration and trouble, for which he will be sufficiently rewarded if he finds that it meets with the approbation and becomes of assistance to the profession and others who may have occasion to refer to it.

The Precedents numbered * * * * * have been taken from Taxed Bills. The remaining ones have been prepared after an intimate acquaintance and study of the Schedule of Fees and the various Rules and Orders.

Those of the Queen's Bench, Common Pleas and Exchequer Divisions are applicable alike to the District Registries as well as to London.

The Higher and Lower scales are given for the Chancery Division, but as the higher scale is not applicable to the Queen's Bench, Common Pleas and Exchequer Divisions, except in actions for Special Injunctions, it is of course omitted.

In collating and compiling this little book, the Author has had the advantage of the long and practical experience of Mr. Alfred Layton, in the requirements of the Profession, whom he begs to thank for many valuable suggestions, particularly in the enlargement and scope of the work.

LONDON,

October, 1876.

PREFACE TO THE SIXTH EDITION.

IN issuing a Sixth Edition, I feel it incumbent upon me to express my sense of the approval awarded to the work by the Profession, evidenced by the rapid sale of the first five Editions within the small space of twelve months from the day of publication.

In preparing this Edition, I have spared no labour to render the book deserving of a continuance of that approval. How well I have succeeded I must of course leave to the judgment of others.

Various Precedents have been added in the Chancery, Queen's Bench, Common Pleas, and Exchequer Divisions, also several others, including those for use in the Probate (contentious and non-contentious), Divorce and Admiralty Divisions, House of Lords, Bankruptcy, &c., &c.

The greater portion of the Precedents, as in the former Editions, have been taken from Taxed Bills, and the remainder prepared from the Schedule of Fees.

I have to return my best thanks to several Members of the Profession, and again to Mr. Alfred Layton, and other friends, who kindly favoured me with information, suggestions, and advice, also to those gentlemen who reviewed the Book on its publication, for the kind spirit in which they noticed my maiden effort.

Any suggestions for the addition of new Precedents or alterations in subsequent Editions will be gratefully received.

JAMES DALTON.

Order III. Other affidavits than those required to be printed by Order XXXVIII., Rule 6, in the schedule to the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1875, may be printed if all the parties interested consent thereto, or the Court or Judge so order.

Order IV. The 3rd Rule of Order XXXIV. in the first schedule to the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1875, shall apply to a special case, pursuant to the Act of 13 & 14 Victoria, c. 35.

Order V. Where, pursuant to Rules of Court, any pleading, special case, petition of right, deposition, or affidavit is to be printed, and where any printed or other office copy thereof is to be taken, the following regulations shall be observed :—

1. The party on whose behalf the deposition or affidavit is taken and filed is to print the same in the manner provided by Rule 2 of Order LVI. in the first schedule to the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1875.

2. To enable the party printing, to print any deposition, the officer to whom it is filed shall on demand deliver to such party a copy written on draft paper on one side only.

3. The party printing shall, on demand in writing, furnish to any other party or his solicitor any number of printed copies, not exceeding ten, upon payment therefor, at the rate of 1*d.* per folio for one copy, and $\frac{1}{2}$ d. per folio for every other copy.

4. The solicitor of the party printing shall give credit for the whole amount payable by any other party for printed copies.

5. The party entitled to be furnished with a print shall not be allowed any charge in respect of a written copy, unless the Court or Judge shall otherwise direct.

6. The party by or on whose behalf any deposition, affidavit, or certificate is filed shall leave a copy with the officer with whom the same is filed, who shall examine it with the original and mark it as an office copy; such copy shall be a copy printed as above provided where such deposition or affidavit is to be printed.

7. The party or solicitor who has taken any printed or written office copy of any deposition or affidavit, is to produce the same upon every proceeding to which the same relates.

8. Where any party is entitled to a copy of any deposition, affidavit, proceeding, or document filed or prepared by or on behalf of another party, which is not required to be printed, such copy shall be furnished by the party by or on whose behalf the same has been filed or prepared.

9. The party requiring any such copy, or his solicitor, is to make a written application to the party by whom the copy is to be furnished, or his solicitor, with an undertaking to pay the proper charges, and thereupon such copy is to be made and ready to be delivered at the expiration of twenty-four hours after the receipt of such request and undertaking, or within such other time as the Court or Judge may in any case direct, and is to be furnished accordingly upon demand and payment of the proper charges.

10. In the case of an ex parte application for an injunction or writ of ne exeat regno, the party making such application is to furnish copies of the affidavits upon which it is granted upon payment of the proper charges immediately upon the receipt of such written request and undertaking as aforesaid, or within such time as may be specified in such request, or may have been directed by the Court.

13. The folios of all printed and written office copies, and copies delivered or furnished to a party, shall be numbered consecutively in the margin thereof, and such written copies shall be written in a neat and legible manner on the same paper as in the case of printed copies.

14. have been filed, and in such case no costs shall be due or payable to the solicitor so making default in respect of the copy or copies so applied for.

15. Where, by any Order of the Court (whether of appeal or otherwise), or a Judge, any pleading, evidence, or other document is ordered to be printed, the Court or Judge may order the expense of printing to be borne and allowed, and printed copies to be furnished by and to such parties and upon such terms as shall be thought fit.

The following Rule issued in June, 1876, will override the fees directed to be charged in items Nos. 104 & 105.

RULES OF THE SUPREME COURT (COSTS).

The Schedule to "The Rules of the Supreme Court (Costs)" is hereby altered in the following particulars:—

The allowance for printing a document not exceeding ten folios shall be 10s., and, in addition, for every twenty beyond the first twenty copies of any document not exceeding twenty-four folios, 2s.

SPECIAL ALLOWANCES AND GENERAL PROVISIONS.

1. As to writs of summons requiring special indorsement, original special cases, pleadings, and affidavits in answer to interrogatories, and other special affidavits, when the higher scale is applicable, the taxing officer may, in lieu of the allowances for instructions and preparing or drawing, make such allowance for work, labour, and expenses in or about the preparation of such documents as in his discretion he may think proper.

2. As to drawing any pleading or other document, the fees allowed shall include any copy made for the use of the solicitor, agent, or client, or for counsel to settle.

3. As to instructions to sue or defend, when the higher scale is applicable, if in consequence of the instructions being taken separately from more than three persons (not being co-partners) the taxing officer shall consider the fee above provided inadequate, he may make such further allowance as he shall in his discretion consider reasonable.

4. As to affidavits, where there are several deponents to be sworn, or it is necessary for the purpose of an affidavit being sworn to go a distance, or to employ an agent, such reasonable allowance may be made as the taxing officer in his discretion may think fit.

5. The allowances for instructions and drawing an affidavit in answer to interrogatories and other special affidavits, and attending the deponent to be sworn, include all attendances on the deponent to settle and read over.

6. As to delivery of pleadings, services, and notices, the fees are not to be allowed when the same solicitor is for both parties, unless it be necessary for the purpose of making an affidavit of service.

7. As to perusals the fees are not to apply where the same solicitor is for both parties.

8. As to evidence, such just and reasonable charges and expenses as appear to have been properly incurred in procuring evidence, and the attendance of witnesses, are to be allowed.

9. As to agency correspondence, in country agency causes and matters, if it be shown to the satisfaction of the taxing officer that such correspondence has been special and extensive, he is to be at liberty to make such special allowance in respect thereof as in his discretion he may think proper.

10. As to attendances at the Judges' Chambers, where, from the length of the attendance, or from the difficulty of the case, the judge or master shall think the highest of the above fees an insufficient remuneration for the services performed, or where the preparation of the case or matter to lay it before the judge or master in chambers, or on a summons, shall have required skill and labour for which no fee has been allowed, the judge or master may allow such fee in lieu of the fee of £1. 1s. above provided, not exceeding £2. 2s., or where the higher scale is applicable £3. 3s., or in proceedings to wind up a company £5. 5s., as in his discretion he may think fit; and where the preparation of the case or matter to lay it before a judge at chambers on a summons shall have required and received from the solicitor such extraordinary skill and labour as materially to conduce to the satisfactory and speedy disposal of the business, and therefore shall appear to the judge to deserve higher remuneration than the ordinary fees, the judge may allow to the solicitor, by a memorandum in writing expressly made for that purpose and signed by the judge, specifying distinctly the grounds of such allowance, such fee, not exceeding 10 guineas, as in his discretion he may think fit, instead of the above fees of £2. 2s., £3. 3s., and £5 5s.

11. As to attendances at the Judges' Chambers, where by reason of the non-attendance of any party (and it is not considered expedient to proceed ex parte), or where by reason of the neglect of any party in not being prepared with any proper evidence account, or other proceeding, the attendance is adjourned without any useful progress being made, the judge may order such an amount of costs (if any) as he shall think reasonable to be paid to the party attending by the party so absent or neglectful, or by his solicitor personally; and the party so absent or neglectful is not to be allowed any fee as against any other party, or any estate or fund in which any other party is interested.

12. A folio is to comprise 72 words, every figure comprised in a column being counted as one word.

13. Such costs of procuring the advice of counsel on the pleadings, evidence, and proceedings in any cause or matter as the taxing officer shall in his discretion think just and reasonable, and of procuring counsel to settle such pleadings and special affidavits as the taxing officer shall in his discretion think proper to be settled by counsel, are to be allowed; but as to affidavits a separate fee is not to be allowed for each affidavit, but one fee for all the affidavits proper to be so settled, which are or ought to be filed at the same time.

14. As to counsel attending at Judges' Chambers, no costs thereof shall in any case be allowed, unless the judge certifies it to be a proper case for counsel to attend.

15. As to inspection of documents under Order XXXI., Rule 14, no allowance is to be made for any notice or inspection, unless it is shown to the satisfaction of the taxing officer that there were good and sufficient reasons for giving such notice and making such inspection.

16. As to taking copies of documents in possession of another party, or extracts therefrom, under Rules of Court or any special order, the party entitled to take the copy or extract is to pay the solicitor of the party producing the document for such copy or extract as he may, by writing, require, at the rate of 4d. per folio ; and if the solicitor of the party producing the document refuses or neglects to supply the same, the solicitor requiring the copy or extract is to be at liberty to make it, and the solicitor for the party producing is not to be entitled to any fee in respect thereof.

17. Where a petition in any cause or matter assigned to the Chancery Division is served, and notice is given to the party served that in case of his appearance in court his costs will be objected to, and accompanied by a tender of costs for perusing the same, the amount to be tendered shall be £2. 2s. The party making such payment shall be allowed the same in his costs, provided such service was proper, but not otherwise ; but this order is without prejudice to the rights of either party to costs, or to object to costs where no such tender is made, or where the Court or judge shall consider the party entitled, notwithstanding such notice or tender, to appear in court. In any other case in which a solicitor of a party served necessarily or properly peruses any such petition without appearing thereon he is to be allowed a fee not exceeding £2. 2s.

18. The Court or judge may, at the hearing of any cause or matter, or upon any application or procedure in any cause or matter in court or at chambers, and whether the same is objected to or not, direct the costs of any pleading, affidavit, evidence, notice to cross-examine witnesses, account, statement, or other proceeding, or any part thereof, which is improper, unnecessary, or contains unnecessary matter, or is of unnecessary length, to be disallowed, or may direct the taxing officer to look into the same and to disallow the costs thereof, or of such part thereof as he shall find to be improper, unnecessary, or to contain unnecessary matter, or to be of unnecessary length ; and in such case the party whose costs are so disallowed shall pay the costs occasioned to the other parties by such unnecessary proceeding, matter, or length ; and in any case where such question shall not have been raised before and dealt with by the Court or judge, the taxing officer may look into the same (and, as to evidence, although the same may be entered as read in any decree or order) for the purpose aforesaid, and thereupon the same consequences shall ensue as if he had been specially directed to do so.

19. In any case in which, under the preceding rule No. 18, or any other rule of Court, or by the order or direction of a Court or judge, or otherwise, a party entitled to receive costs is liable to pay costs to any other party, the taxing officer may tax the costs such party is so liable to pay, and may adjust the same by way of deduction or set off, or may, if he shall think fit, delay the allowance of the costs such party is entitled to receive until he has paid or tendered the costs he is liable to pay; or such officer may allow or certify the costs to be paid, and the same may be recovered by the party entitled thereto in the same manner as costs ordered to be paid may be recovered.

20. Where in the Chancery Division any question as to any costs is under the preceding rule 18 dealt with at chambers, the chief clerk is to make a note thereof, and state the same on his allowance of the fees for attendances at chambers, or otherwise as may be convenient for the information of the taxing officer.

21. Where any party appears upon any application or proceeding in court or at chambers, in which he is not interested, or upon which, according to the practice of the Court, he ought not to attend, he is not to be allowed any costs of such appearance unless the Court or judge shall expressly direct such costs to be allowed.

22. As to applications to extend the time for taking any proceeding limited by Rules of Court (subject to any special order as to the costs of and occasioned by any such application), the costs of one application are, without special order, to be allowed as costs in the cause or matter, but (unless specially ordered) no costs are to be allowed of any further application to the party making the same as against any other party, or any estate or fund in which any other party is interested.

23. The taxing officers of the Supreme Court, or of any division thereof, shall, for the purpose of any proceeding before them, have power and authority to administer oaths, and shall, in relation to the taxation of costs, perform all such duties as have heretofore been performed by any of the masters, taxing masters, registrars, or other officers of any of the courts whose jurisdiction is by the Act transferred to the High Court of Justice or Court of Appeal, and shall, in respect thereof, have such powers and authorities as previous to the commencement of the Act were vested in any of such officers, including examining witnesses, directing production of books, papers, and documents, making separate certificates or allocaturs, requiring any party to be represented by a separate solicitor, and to direct and adopt all such other proceedings as could be directed and adopted by any such officer on references for the taxation of costs, and taking accounts of what is due in respect of such costs, and such other accounts connected therewith as may be directed by the Court or a judge.

24. The taxing officer shall have authority to arrange and direct what parties are to attend before him on the taxation of costs to be borne by a fund or estate, and to disallow the costs of any party whose attendance such officer shall in his discretion consider unnecessary in consequence of the interest of such party in such fund or estate being small or remote, or sufficiently protected by other parties interested.

25. When any party entitled to costs refuses or neglects to bring in his costs for taxation, or to procure the same to be taxed, and thereby prejudices any other party, the taxing officer shall be at liberty to certify the costs of the other parties, and certify such refusal or neglect, or may allow such party refusing or neglecting a nominal or other sum for such costs, so as to prevent any other party being prejudiced by such refusal or neglect.

26. As to costs to be paid or borne by another party, no costs are to be allowed which do not appear to the taxing officer to have been necessary or proper for the attainment of justice or defending the rights of the party, or which appear to the taxing officer to have been incurred through over-caution, negligence, or mistake, or merely at the desire of the party.

27. As to any work and labour properly performed and not herein provided for, and in respect of which fees have heretofore been allowed, the same or similar fees are to be allowed for such work and labour as have heretofore been allowed.

28. The rules, orders, and practice of any Court whose jurisdiction is transferred to the High Court of Justice or Court of Appeal, relating to costs, and the allowance of the fees of solicitors and attorneys, and the taxation of costs, existing prior to the commencement of the Act, shall, in so far as they are not inconsistent with the Act, and the Rules of Court in pursuance thereof, remain in force and be applicable to costs of the same or analogous proceedings, and to the allowance of the fees of solicitors of the Supreme Court and the taxation of costs in the High Court of Justice and Court of Appeal.

29. As to all fees or allowances which are discretionary, the same are, unless otherwise provided, to be allowed at the discretion of the taxing officer, who, in the exercise of such discretion, is to take into consideration the other fees and allowances to the solicitor and counsel, if any, in respect of the work to which any such allowance applies, the nature and importance of the cause or matter, the amount involved, the interest of the parties, the fund or persons to bear the costs, the general conduct and costs of the proceedings, and all other circumstances.

30. Any party who may be dissatisfied with the allowance or disallowance by the taxing officer, in any bill of costs taxed by him, of the whole or any part of any item or items, may, at any time before the certificate or allocatur is signed, deliver to the other party interested therein, and carry in before the taxing officer, an objection in writing to such allowance or disallowance, specifying therein by a list, in a short and concise form, the item or items, or parts or part thereof, objected to, and may thereupon apply to the taxing officer to review the taxation in respect of the same.

31. Upon such application the taxing officer shall reconsider and review his taxation upon such objections, and he may, if he shall think fit, receive further evidence in respect thereof, and, if so required by either party, he shall state either in his certificate of taxation or allocatur, or by reference to such objection, the grounds and reasons of his decision thereon, and any special facts or circumstances relating thereto.

32. Any party who may be dissatisfied with the certificate or allocatur of the taxing officer, as to any item or part of an item which may have been objected to as aforesaid, may apply to a judge at chambers for an order to review the taxation as to the same item or part of an item, and the judge may thereupon make such order as to the judge may seem just; but the certificate or allocatur of the taxing officer shall be final and conclusive as to all matters which shall not have been objected to in manner aforesaid.

33. Such application shall be heard and determined by the judge upon the evidence which shall have been brought in before the taxing officer, and no further evidence shall be received upon the hearing thereof, unless the judge shall otherwise direct.

34. When a writ of summons for the commencement of an action shall be issued from a district, and when an action proceeds in a district registry, all fees and allowances, and rules and directions relating to costs, which would be applicable to such proceedings if the writ of summons were issued in London, and if the action proceeded in London, shall apply to such writ of summons issued from and other proceedings in district registry.

ORDERS AS TO COURT FEES.

Orders as to Court Fees under the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1875. October 28, 1875.

I. The fees and percentages contained in the schedule hereto are fixed and appointed to be, and shall be taken in the High Court of Justice, and in the Court of Appeal, and in any Court to be created by any commission, and in any office which is connected with any of those Courts, or in which any business connected with any of those Courts is conducted, and by any officer paid wholly or partly out of public moneys who is attached to any of those Courts or the Supreme Court, or any Judge of those Courts, or any of them; and the said fees and percentages shall be taken by stamps, except those taken in the District Registries, which shall, until further order, be taken in money, and applied and accounted for in such manner as the Treasury may from time to time direct.

II. The fees and percentages set forth in the column headed Lower Scale in the schedule hereto are to be taken and paid in all cases in which the Lower Scale of fees is to be charged and allowed to solicitors under the provisions of the Additional Rules of Court under the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1875, issued by Order in Council, dated the 12th day of August, 1875, and the fees and percentages set forth in the column headed Higher Scale in the schedule hereto are to be taken and paid in all other cases.

III. In causes and matters by the 34th section of the Supreme Court of Judicature Act, 1873, assigned to the Chancery Division:—

The solicitor or party acting in person shall, on any proceeding in which he claims to pay fees according to the Lower Scale, file with the proper officer a certificate in the form hereunder set forth, of which certificate the officer is, at the request of any solicitor or any party acting in person in the cause or matter, to mark a copy without a fee.

On production of such copy of the certificate all officers of the Court are to receive and file all proceedings in the cause or matter bearing stamps according to the Lower Scale.

In any case certified for the Lower Scale of Court fees, in which it shall happen that the solicitor shall become entitled to charge and be allowed according to the Higher Scale of solicitors' fees, the deficiency in the fees of Court is to be made good.

In any case in which the fees have been paid upon the Higher Scale, and in which it shall happen that the solicitor shall become entitled to charge and be allowed only according to the Lower Scale of solicitors' fees, the excess of fees so paid may be allowed upon the taxation of costs, if the circumstances of the case shall, in the judgment of the taxing officer, justify such allowance.

IV. The provisions in this Order shall not apply to or affect any of the matters following (that is to say) :—

REFERENCE.

Mr. is the Taxing
Master in rotation to whom the taxation of costs in this action [cause or matter] is referred.

SITTING MASTER.

IN framing these precedents, the usual attendances only have been inserted, since particular and special attendances vary in each particular action or proceeding. These latter, therefore, the solicitor must, in each bill of costs, supply from his entries.

As heretofore, the dates in a bill are of the greatest importance; solicitors should, therefore, be careful in furnishing them accurately, and also in distinguishing each Sitting

Solicitors are reminded that in Chancery Division actions the old practice still prevails, viz., that the allowance for an attendance before the chief clerk, where the fee exceeds 6s. 8d., depends upon the Chief Clerk's certificate; therefore, unless the solicitor is careful to have the attendance of more than the usual length and importance certified, he will only be allowed 6s. 8d.

The office copies affidavits are charged throughout the Precedents at 6d. per folio, but Solicitors are entitled to make their own copies and charge therefor 4d. per folio; the 6d. is made up by the payment at the Record and Writ Clerk's office of 2d. per folio for examination.

In the Chancery Division, Refresher fees are not allowed to Counsel for the second day of trial, but are allowed for the third and subsequent days.

Travelling expenses, sum reasonably paid, but not more than 6d. per mile one way.

If witnesses attend in more than one cause, they will be entitled to a proportionate part in each cause only.

NOTE.—It is considered to be unnecessary to give any rule with respect to taking acknowledgments of married women, as it is the duty of the solicitor employed to prepare the certificate and affidavit, and swear to the latter; and the course to be followed by the judge is laid down in the Act 3 and 4 W. 4, c. 74. The only duty for the registrar to perform, beside that of swearing the solicitor to the affidavit, is that of putting his initials against all alterations, interlineations, or erasures either in the certificate or affidavit.

ROW. WINN.

I approve of the annexed schedule of fees.
26th October, 1875.

CAIRNS, C.

[An order or rule referred to in the following schedules shall mean the order or rule so numbered in the County Court Rules, 1875.]

SCHEDULE A.

For every plaint or petition, one shilling in the pound.

Where the claim or demand exceeds forty shillings, and an ordinary summons is to be served by bailiff, an additional fee of one shilling.

Where in any case the number of defendants shall exceed three, an additional fee of one shilling for each defendant above three.

No fee shall be payable on any application for a new trial, or to set aside proceedings, or for a summons in an interpleader.

For entering judgment by consent under sects. 8 or 9 of "The County Courts Act, 1850," or under a default summons, one shilling in the pound on the amount claimed in the summons.

For every hearing, two shillings in the pound.

In all cases where the defendant shall either personally, or by his solicitor or agent, admit the claim, one half of the fee paid by the plaintiff for the hearing of the plaint shall be returned to the plaintiff by the Registrar of the court, although the court may have been required to decide upon the terms and conditions upon which the claim is to be paid.

An additional hearing fee shall be taken for every new trial.

The hearing on interpleader shall not be prepaid, but shall be estimated on the amount of the money or the value of the goods claimed, which value, in case of dispute, shall be assessed by the judge, who, at the hearing, shall direct by whom and when and how such fee shall be paid.

No fee shall be payable for hearing any application for a new trial, or to set aside proceedings.

For issuing every warrant against the goods, eighteenpence in the pound on the amount for which such warrant shall issue.

For issuing every warrant to deliver possession of tenements, eighteenpence in the pound.

For every judgment summons under the Debtors Act, 1869, threepence in the pound on so much of the amount of the original demand as, in obedience to the order of the court, should have been paid at the time of the issue of the summons.

Where such last-mentioned amount does not exceed twenty shillings, an additional fee of sixpence; and where such amount does exceed twenty shillings, an additional fee of one shilling.

For every hearing of the matters mentioned in such judgment summons, sixpence in the pound on the amount upon which the fee on the summons is calculated.

For issuing every order of commitment, eighteenpence in the pound on the amount upon which the fee on the summons is calculated.

For keeping possession of goods till sale, per day (including expenses of removal, storage of goods, and all other expenses), not exceeding five days, sixpence in the pound on the value of the goods seized, to be fixed by appraisement in case of dispute.

In all plaints, all poundage, except where otherwise specified in this schedule, shall be estimated on the amount of the claim.

In plaints under sections 11 and 12 of "The County Courts Act, 1867," poundage shall be estimated as upon a claim for a sum of twenty pounds.

In replevins, all poundage, except as aforesaid, shall be estimated on the amount of the alleged rent or damage, to be fixed by the Registrar.

In plaints for the recovery of tenements when the term has expired or been determined by notice, all poundage, except as aforesaid, shall be estimated on the amount of the weekly, monthly, or yearly rent of the tenement, as such tenement shall have been let by the week or by the month, or for any longer period; and if no rent shall have been reserved, then on the amount of the half-yearly value of the tenement, to be fixed by the Registrar.

Where a claim for rent or mesne profits, or both, is added to a plaint for the recovery of a tenement, an additional poundage shall be taken on the amount or amounts so claimed, but where thereby the total amount on which poundage would be taken shall exceed twenty pounds, the poundage shall be estimated on twenty pounds only.

In plaints for the recovery of tenements for non-payment of rent, all poundage, except as aforesaid, shall be estimated on the amount of the half-yearly rent of the tenement.

Where a counter or other claim is made under Order X. of the County Court Rules, 1875, the same fees shall be taken as upon the entry and hearing of a plaint.

In proceedings under "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," "The Literary and Scientific Institutions Act, 1854," and "The Metropolitan Buildings Act, 1855," the poundage shall be estimated upon the amount in dispute, and if no amount is in dispute, or if the amount in dispute is not ascertained, then as upon a claim for a sum of twenty pounds.

In proceedings under "The Succession Duty Act, 1853," the poundage shall be estimated upon the amount in dispute.

In proceedings under "The Friendly Societies Act, 1875," or under any Act giving the court jurisdiction in any matter, such other Act not being a County Court Act, the poundage shall be estimated upon the amount in dispute.

In the above cases where the poundage would, but for this direction, be estimated on an amount exceeding twenty pounds, it shall be estimated at twenty pounds only.

In every case where the poundage cannot be estimated by any rule in this schedule, it shall be estimated on twenty pounds.

All fractions of a pound, for the purpose of calculating poundage, shall be treated as an entire pound.

No increase of fees shall be made by reason of there being more than one plaintiff or defendant, except as before directed, where the number of defendants exceeds three.

JAMES BACON, Chief Judge.

THE FOLLOWING ARE THE ORDERS RELATING TO COSTS.

4. All bills and charges of attorneys, receivers, managers, accountants, auctioneers, brokers, and other persons not being trustees, in matters of bankruptcy, shall be taxed by the proper officer of the court, and no payments in respect of such bills or charges shall be allowed by the comptroller, in the accounts of a trustee, without due proof of such taxation having been made. The taxing officer shall satisfy himself that the employment of a solicitor has been duly authorised by section 29 of the Act.

5. All bills and charges of attorneys, receivers, managers, accountants, auctioneers, brokers, and other persons not being trustees, in matters of liquidation, shall be taxed by the proper officer of the court, and no payments in respect of such bills or charges shall be allowed in the accounts of a trustee without due proof of such taxation having been made. No payment shall be allowed in respect of the remuneration of a trustee in liquidation, except on the allocatur of the taxing officer, as being in accordance with the determination of the creditors thereon.

6. Where in bankruptcy or liquidation a receiver or manager is continued as trustee, the remuneration of trustee at the rate determined on shall commence as from the date of his appointment as receiver or manager, and shall be assessed accordingly; and no other than the aforesaid remuneration shall be made to the trustee for his services as receiver or manager.

7. Where the receiver or manager is not continued as trustee, or is continued as trustee but without remuneration, he shall be allowed out of the estate such sum for his services as receiver or manager as the taxing officer of the court shall, having regard to the views of the trustee, and committee of inspection (if any) thereon, think fit.

8. Where any costs in bankruptcy or liquidation are incurred subsequent to these rules, and the proveable debts of the debtor do not exceed £750, or the estimated assets do not exceed £200, a lower scale of attorneys' costs shall be allowed, namely, three-fifths of the charges ordinarily allowed, disbursements being added. If in error any charges have been allowed or paid on the higher scale, and the proveable debts shall afterwards be ascertained not to exceed £750, or the gross proceeds of the assets not to exceed £200, the excess shall be disallowed, and if paid shall be repaid to the trustee.

Where the same Solicitor acts for both Vendor and Purchaser, he should have the Purchaser's Solicitor's allowance, and $\frac{1}{4}$ th of the allowance of the Vendor's Solicitor, of the aggregate of which, in the absence of a special agreement, the Vendor shall bear two-fifths and the Purchaser three-fifths.
